CITY SECURITIES.

The object of quotations is to keep customers, or prospective customers, posted as to market prices; nobody wants to know what prices were a week ago, or yesterday, or an hour ago, or even 5 minutes ago; what they do want to know is WHAT IS THE MARKET NOW? and that is what they cannot find out about Chicago Wheat. That "private gaming establishment" wants that much "edge" before they will trade. Well, people do not have to trade in Chicago Wheat, because the New York Produce Exchange quotations are collected by the Western Union and sent out instantaneously; they are absolutely fresh. Try them; we have them. Howard, Grosby & Co 24 Congress St. Boston

The Second Table

We find the following in the financial columns of the Boston Herald:

"C. A. Orvis, principal broker for 'Old Hutch' on the Chicago Board of Trade for many years, has posted his seat for transfer. The Chicago Board of Trade Zyes, yes, the place where the public is invited to sit down at the second table after regular diners have finished, and the quotations are cold. A sort of private gaming establishment?"

So, although we were the first, we are not the only ones to object to

KAUFMANN & CO.

Millinery Opening

To-Day, Sept. 26th, To-Morrow, Sept. 27th.

All Richmond Invited.

O-DAY and to-morrow our superb Millinery Parlors will be thrown open for the inspection of the largest stock of Ladies' Trimmed Headgear ever exhibited at a Fall Opening. Notwithstanding the reputation KAUFMANN'S has attained as the Foremost Millinery House in Richmond, strenuous efforts have been made by the proprietors to make this Fall Opening the most magnificent that has ever taken place, and in order to do this models have been carefully selected, designed by the GREATEST MODISTES OF THE FASHION CENTRES OF EUROPE, and thus the confections to be seen to-day and to-morrow, far outreach anything previously seen in this section of the country. The whole department is teeming with WORKS OF MILLINERY ART, displaying an overwhelming variety of styles of the very latest designs. Seldom has a season been where the shapes and styles of the Imported Creations have been so wearable and becoming whilst the elegance of trimming overshadows every previous Fall Display. The large Picture or Dress Hats are to be seen in bewildering abundance, trimmed with the newest effects, large Picture or Dress Hats are to be seen in bewildering abundance, trimined with the newsceneets, such as Panne Velvet, Ribbed Taffeta Silk, or Pleated Plisse. This is enhanced by bows or puffs of Liberty, Ribbed Taffeta, or Double-Faced Satin Ribbon. The ornamentation is generally fancy feathers of the coque effect brightened by a steel, gold or jet buckle, or some jewelled ornament, and the creation is finished, displaying a dainty conception, the envy of all eyes and the pride of the great artists whose handiwork it is. Beyond these Imported delicacies MAGNIFICENTLY TRIMMED HATS can be seen, designed of and fresh from the hands of our own experts, which can be readily accepted as Pattern Hats. There are hundreds of them to be looked at, and you will admire them all, especially when you see them at such remarkably low prices that every one will be tempted, and the stock of them is so vast, the styles and shapes so varied that any one can certainly be suited.

Walking Hats are again fashionable in the wide brim style, trimmed with plain, dotted and striped ribbon bands, or with a faucy sash, suitable at all times for the street or wheel.

Untrimmed Felt Hats, in the French fur or wool, can be seen in an overwhelming number of shapes, the most popular for present wear being the Turban and the London Round Hats. Large droop brims with big crowns are likewise stylish and will run through the season while the Toque effects ever have sufficient support to make them a standard head apparel for the Fall and Winter.

Mourning Millinery has always been a specialty at Kaufmann's and can be viewed in a larger ready-made assortment than anywhere in town. Special attention has been paid to the Misses' and Children's Hat Department and by looking through the Trimmed Goods you can find some of the daintiest creations imaginable. Special designs can be seen this year, and all are made with the idea of elegance combined with reasonable prices.

Then there are the READY-TO-WEAR HATS, trimmed in velvet, silk, polka dot, gold braid and chenille at prices low enough to be startling. Millinery Trimmings in tremendous assortment; in fact, the stock is far larger than has heretofore

Warm Discussion Among Baptist Ministers at Suffolk.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

SUFFOLK, VA., Sept. 73.—The warmest discussion at the first day's session of the Portsmouth Baptist Association, in session here, was in regard to retaining in the church members who minifacture or sell intoxicating liquors. Among those who teok part in the session were: Reys. J. M. Filcher, D. D., Petersburg, W. F. Fisher, D. D., Portsmouth; M. E. Broaddus, D. D., Mill Swamp; J. F. Deans, D. D., Windsor; J. E. Jones, South Quay; V. I. Anderson, Norfolk. The association seemed against liquor, but did not decide to-day whether a man could make or sell it and still be a church member. They appointed in each church having such mem-month.

READING, PA., September 25.—The prospects are that by to-morrow coal ship-ments over the Philadelphia and Reading ments over the Philadelphia and Reading Railread Company will drop to 400 car-poads drilly, one-fourth the usual run. The company is now preparing to lay off some of the men at its repair car shops at differ-ent points along the line, Hundreds of them will be suspended, as the tle-up be-comes more successful and east trail. Mr. Language Eddinger is the gentleman's name, and he is to be commended for the manner in which he handled the stage. with one exception. He allowed the stage hands at the side of the stage to become visible to the audience. At one time last pight a beautiful piece of stage work was marred by the appearance of a shoulder and acte arm of one of the stage hands, near the right "tornenter."

The arm of Sherlock Holmes to work

The part of Sherlock Holmes is well taken by Mr. Cuyler Hastings, and he is well supported by a east that has not been excelled in general proficiency at the Academy this season. Mr. Griffith Evans as the "Professor" was excellent, and all of the female parts were well taken. There is an attraction about the play that holds an audience to the end, and many will doubtless enjoy the play at the matinee this afternoon and again to-night.
